

Recommendations from Campus Budget Summit
February 12, 2009

Principle 3:

Do not compromise the safety and health of the campus community and its members, and seek to address the welfare of our students and employees during a very difficult time.

1. Investigate the cost of the police and parking departments.
2. Do not jeopardize student assistant positions on campus, as these provide an efficient form of much-needed labor in many offices.