- Literacy and Early Education (LEE)

Master's Degree Program

The Master of Arts degree in Education with an option in curriculum and instruction is designed to provide professional and specialized preparation for candidates interested in acquiring knowledge and skills essential for the design and development of curriculum and related instructional practices. This 30-semester unit program provides candidates with an opportunity to obtain in-depth study in a variety of specialty areas associated with the field of education, such as microcomputer applications, subject area applications, philosophical/psychological foundation applications, etc. For more information about this program, refer to the Education — Curriculum, Teaching, and Educational Technology section in this catalog.

Victim Services Certificate Program

The SOEHD and the Department of Criminology jointly sponsor the Victim Services Certificate of Special Study Program.

The primary goal of the Victim Services Program is to provide experiences, knowledge, and skills for working with victims within a criminological/human development framework. This program is also very useful for individuals interested in pursuing a career in the area of behavioral sciences.

Students working toward a Victim Services Certificate have an opportunity to receive an interdisciplinary/interagency examination of victim services as they relate to:

Special Programs and Services

The Center for Educational Research and Services (CERS) assists faculty, students, school districts, and the community in improving practice in education through research. Emphasis is on applied and collaborative research which will impact educational quality for learners of all ages. Assistance is available in grant proposal writing and submission; in administering state, federal, and private grants; and for consultation for specific needs such as organizational change, publication, and program planning. Other technical support includes evaluation, survey design, and statistical programming, analysis, and interpretation. The SOEHD Center for Educational Research and Services is located in ED 334.

Advancement. In its effort to provide the highest quality programs and services to the educational community in the Central Valley, the SOEHD has begun a comprehensive plan for advancement. The school intends to involve faculty, emeriti faculty, business leaders, students, alumni, and friends of education in providing “state-of-the-art” instruction, facilities, and programs for continuing development and support of education. Coordination of the Advancement program is provided by Lynn Eilefson, director of advancement, in ED 236. For more information, call (559) 278-0249.

The Instructional Technology and Resource Center (INTERESC) provides support to faculty for the utilization and integration of technology in the curriculum. INTERESC staff provide assistance in instructional design required for the preparation and production of instructional materials such as slides, videotapes, multimedia, and other media formats. Center personnel also consult with students, faculty, and staff in selecting computer hardware and software, and audiovisual equipment. This unit also includes a Resource Center which contains print and non-print curriculum materials that are available for both immediate examination and checkout. A Support Services area can be accessed for development of special publications and presentations as well as for volume duplication and reproduction. INTERESC manages all SOEHD computerized classrooms and laboratories and provides technical support for the Human Development Center. Coordination of INTERESC is provided by Otto E. Benavides in ED 481.

The Human Development Center provides support for instruction and also includes specialized services for clientele ranging in age from infant through adult. This center is comprised of two major areas: the Early Childhood Education Center and the Clinic.

- The Early Childhood Education Center provides opportunities for students to observe child development and learning processes as well as to participate in the educational processes through supervised laboratory experiences. The clientele include children from low-income families and other children from the local community who are on-site throughout the day.

- The Clinic provides laboratory space in support of instruction in counseling, reading, and special education programs. Clientele using this facility receive a variety of special clinical services delivered in one-to-one or small group formats. These services include individual and group testing, special reading instruction, work skills assessment, parenting instruction, and other programs that are focused on unique client needs.

International Education and Special Programs. SOEHD is involved in international program development and study so that faculty and students can enhance their understanding of other cultures and nations and contribute constructively toward a better future throughout the world. Special support is provided for international, multicultural, and cross-cultural educational experiences for faculty, staff, and students. Additionally, the SOEHD is committed to the development and offering of special courses and programs to meet the educational needs of students and the community. Coordination of the SOEHD International Education and Special Programs is provided by Berta Gonzalez in ED 205.

Mini Corps. The SOEHD provides facilities for the Mini Corps Program. This program is developed to prepare migrant students to work in bilingual classrooms and to obtain teaching credentials. Mini Corps staff provide counseling, advising, and financial support annually for 80 migrant students who are interested in becoming teachers. For more information contact Directors Lilly Lomeli or Jose Mejia in the Mini Corps Office located in ED 461.
