

Counseling and Special Education

The Department

The Department of Counseling and Special Education offers programs and master's degrees in the areas of counseling, rehabilitation counseling, and special education. The programs utilize the services and facilities of community agencies and school districts within the university service area.

Counseling. The M.S. in Counseling offers two separate options: (1) option in marriage and family therapy (60 units) and (2) option in counseling and student services (48 units).

The M.S. in Counseling with an option in marriage and family therapy is a 60-unit program designed for persons who desire professional preparation for the practice of marriage and family therapy in agency or private settings.

The M.S. in Counseling with an option in counseling and student services is a 48-unit program for individuals seeking advanced preparation for careers in school counseling. This option includes two specializations: (1) K-12 emphasis and (2) higher education emphasis.

The M.S. in Rehabilitation Counseling is a 60-unit program designed for persons who desire professional preparation to work in agency or private settings assisting those who are physically, mentally, or emotionally disabled to reach optimal occupational, personal, and social adjustment.

Special Education. The Special Education program offers the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Disabilities in a basic program format, an internship format, and a dual certification program (known as the TIES Program), which leads to the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate or Moderate/Severe Disabilities and the Multiple Subjects Credential.

The Special Education Program also offers the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Disabilities. Students must complete the Professional Level II credential program within five years of completion of the Level I credential program. Additionally, the program offers the Master of Arts degree in Special Education, which may be taken while pursuing the Professional Level II credential program.

The Pupil Personnel Services Credential Program is a 42-unit program that provides preparation for individuals who desire to function as school counselors in grades K-12.

Career Opportunities

Completion of the Pupil Personnel Services Credential and the K-12 specialization of the M.S. in Counseling with an option in counseling and student services prepares graduates to work as counselors in a public school setting. Completion of the higher education specialization of the counseling and student services option prepares graduates to work at the community college or university level in the areas of counseling and student services student life.

Completion of the M.S. in Counseling with an option in marriage and family therapy may qualify graduates for employment in private or agency counseling practices, county mental health programs, employee assistance programs, drug and alcohol abuse centers, and hospital mental health settings. The M.S. in Counseling with an option in marriage and family therapy may fulfill the educational requirements for the state of California Marriage and Family Therapist License. Since this program is accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), MFT students are qualified to take the National Certified Counselor Exam upon graduation. This national examination is being used as the written portion of the professional counselor licensing process in more than 35 states.

Persons completing the M.S. in Rehabilitation Counseling may become employed in a variety of work settings including state and federal vocational rehabilitation programs, sheltered workshops, medical rehabilitation centers, private practice, drug and alcohol abuse rehabilitation programs, county and private mental health programs, community colleges and university disabled student programs, industry alcohol/industrial accident/employee assistance programs, and insurance company rehabilitation programs. The M.S. in Rehabilitation Counseling qualifies students to take the national exam to become a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC).

Persons completing the Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Disabilities may seek employment in public or private school programs,

Application Deadlines

University Admission. University deadlines for graduate admission applications normally are set during the semester prior to anticipated program enrollment. (Deadlines occur during April or May for fall enrollment and October or November for spring enrollment.) The university may extend admission deadlines if anticipated enrollment targets are not met. For specific deadlines, applicants need to check with the Admissions Office, Joyal Administration Public Contact Window, or call (559) 278-2261.

KSOEHD Admission. All KSOEHD admission materials required for full admission (Classified Standing) are to be submitted to the graduate technician in the Education Student Services Center, ED 152, no later than 30 days following the deadline for university admission. Students submitting all application material within these timelines will receive priority consideration for admission. For KSOEHD admission deadlines, contact the Education Student Services Center, ED 152, or call (559) 278-0300.

Applicants must complete the California State University Graduate and Postbaccalaureate Application for Admission (Form G-A and B) and submit it to the Admissions, Records, and Evaluations Office located in the Joyal Administration Building. Application forms may be obtained from the Division of Graduate Studies, Thomas Administration Building, Room 132 or from the Education Student Services Center, ED 152. Also, applicants must complete the Counseling or Special Education Program application that can be obtained from the department office in ED 350 or the Education Student Services Center, ED 152.

All applicants must attend a regularly scheduled informational orientation session within the program. To obtain a schedule of sessions, contact ED 350 or call (559) 278-0340. Applicants will receive written notification regarding admission status after review by program faculty. Applicants may be required to attend a structured interview.

Graduate Programs

The Department of Counseling and Special Education offers programs leading to a Master of Science in Counseling with an option in counseling and student services; a Master of Science in Counseling with an option in marriage and family therapy; a Master of Science in Rehabilitation Counseling; and a Master of Arts in Special Education.

Candidates who qualify for a preliminary teaching credential with completion of a bachelor's degree program may, with prior approval, use a master's degree program to satisfy the fifth-year requirements for a clear teaching credential.

Clinical Review

A formal clinical review process serves as a prerequisite for advancement to candidacy along with the advancement to candidacy criteria outlined in the Division of Graduate Studies section in this catalog.

During the semester that students are enrolled in the COUN 208 practicum course, the Clinical Review Committee of program faculty convenes to evaluate students. The criteria for this evaluation are based on skills and qualities considered appropriate for entry-level counselors. Students may be asked to leave the program if committee recommendations are not met. Students will not be allowed to advance to candidacy until they pass the clinical review.

Master of Science in Counseling

The Master of Science in Counseling is a professional degree program designed for persons who desire to practice in the field of counseling. The Master of Science includes two program options: (1) the Option in Marriage and Family Therapy and (2) the Option in Counseling and Student Services.

Option in Marriage and Family Therapy

The Master of Science in Counseling is a 60-unit professional degree program designed for persons who desire to practice in the field of counseling. An option is available in marriage and family therapy. Persons completing this degree may qualify to work in agencies, community colleges, four-year colleges and universities, marriage and family therapy, and related areas. Completion of the M.S. in Counseling with an option in marriage and family therapy fulfills the educational requirements for the state of California Marriage and Family Therapist License. Students entering the program after January 2001 will be required to take a 2-unit course on psychopharmacology to qualify for MFT licensure in California. Students seeking licensure should contact the coordinator of counselor education for information regarding licensing. This degree program is designed to meet the requirements of Division 2, Chapter 13, Section 4980.37 of the California Business and Professions Code.

In 1995 the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) conferred accreditation to the MFT option in counseling in Marriage and Family Therapy. CACREP is a specialized accrediting body recognized by the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation. Since this program is CACREP accredited, MFT students are qualified to take the National Certified Counselor Exam upon graduation.

Admission Requirements. See Master's Degrees Admission Requirements, page 277. Applicants must have a valid undergraduate degree from a recognized four year degree granting institution with a GPA of 2.75 or above and have completed the GRE or MAT. For more details, see the Counseling Program application forms.

Course Requirements. Under the direction of a graduate adviser, each student develops and submits an individually designed program within the following framework:

	Units
Core requirements .....	25
COUN 200, 201, 202, 203, 206, 208, 220; ERF 220
Marriage and Family Therapy Option .....	29
COUN 230, 231, 232, 233, 234A, B, C, 238 (8 units), 239 (6 units)
Culminating experience .....	6
Choose between (a) 6 units of electives plus comprehensive exam, (b) COUN 298 Project [3 units] plus 3 units of electives, or (c) COUN 299 Thesis [6 units].
Total .....	60

Note: Practicum must be completed with a grade of B or better. Students may select a comprehensive exam, master's project, or master's thesis for their culminating experience in coordination with their adviser.

Option in Counseling and Student Services

The Option in Counseling and Student Services is a 48 unit program that is designed for individuals seeking advanced preparation for careers in educational settings.

There are two specialization areas in this option. The K-12 specialization is designed to complement the Pupil Personnel Services Credential (PPS) curriculum and is intended to enhance preparation of public of public school counselors. The PPS credential is required of those seeking employment as counselors in the K-12 public schools.

The Higher Education specialization is designed to prepare individuals for employment as student service professionals in four-year and community college settings. Graduates with this degree are prepared for employment in the multifaceted arena of higher education.

Preparation for a career in student services requires knowledge of individual and group dynamics, advising practices in specialized settings, and an understanding of the developmental issues associated with students' maturation process. It requires an appreciation of organizational dynamics and a firm foundation in counseling theory as well as acquisition of counseling skills appropriate for use with students from diverse populations and backgrounds.

Admission Requirements. See Master's Degrees Admission Requirements, page 277. Applicants must have a valid undergraduate degree from a recognized four year degree granting institution with a GPA of 2.75 or above and have completed the GRE or MAT. For more details, see the Counseling Program application forms.

Note: Practicum must be completed with a grade of B or better. Students may select a comprehensive exam, master's project, or master's thesis for their culminating experience in coordination with their adviser.

Master of Science in Rehabilitation Counseling

The Master of Science in Rehabilitation Counseling assumes undergraduate preparation in psychology or counseling or a closely related area. A baccalaureate degree in an unrelated area is acceptable provided the student has a working knowledge of the behavioral sciences. The degree requires 60 units of credit and is designed to cover two years of full-time coursework, including a full semester of internship. The program provides a combination of classroom and practical field experiences, which integrates theory and practice of rehabilitation counseling in a rehabilitation setting. The curriculum has flexibility to meet varying student needs.

The graduate program in rehabilitation counseling is accredited by the Council on Rehabilitation Education (CORE). Students are eligible to take the exam to become a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC) during the last semester of study.

The program is ranked among the top 30 in the country by the U.S. News and World Report.

Program Mission

The program's mission is to serve people with disabilities by doing an outstanding job of training warm, empathic, trustworthy, and competent qualified rehabilitation professionals who will make a real difference in the lives of persons with disabilities and transform the practice of rehabilitation counseling in California and beyond.

Admission Requirements for Classified Standing. Applicants must have a valid undergraduate degree from a recognized four year degree granting institution with a GPA of 2.75 or above and have completed the GRE or MAT. For more details, see the Rehabilitation Counseling application forms.

Note: Students may not complete more than 10 units of 200-level coursework before obtaining classified standing (full admission to the program).

Program Prerequisites. ERF 153 (Educational Statistics), PSYCH 154 (Personality) or 250T (Seminar in Personality) or COUN 174 (Introduction to Counseling), and PSYCH 166 (Abnormal Psychology) or COUN 176 (Counseling and Mental Health) or their equivalents. Program prerequisites may not be counted toward the Master of Science in Rehabilitation Counseling.

Course Requirements. Under the direction of the graduate adviser, each student prepares and submits an individually designed program within the following framework:

Units
Core requirements .....	44
	COUN 250, 251A, 251B, 252, 253, 257, 258, 260, 263, 268, 269
Courses in supporting curriculum .....	9
	Research methods: ERF 220 ..... (3) Individual and group counsel- ing skills: COUN 200, 202 ..... (6)
Elective .....	1
	(Approved by adviser.)
Culminating Experience .....	6
	Choose between (a) 6 units of electives plus comprehensive exam, (b) COUN 298 Project [3 units] plus 3 units of electives, or (c) COUN 299 Thesis [6 units].
Total .....	60

In order to graduate, the student must demonstrate proficiency by the satisfactory completion of a culminating experience, the graduate writing requirement, and two clinical reviews in addition to fulfillment of all other specified degree requirements.

The writing requirement consists of a B or better grade in COUN 257 and 258 taken in the second and third semester respectively. Students failing the writing requirement will be referred for writing tutoring and repeat the writing portion of one of those courses until the requirement is met.

Special Education

New state regulations have significantly changed the credentialing process for special education teachers. It is no longer necessary to first obtain a Single Subject or Multiple Subjects teaching credential before entering the field of special education. Under the new regulations, one must obtain the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate and/or Moderate/Severe Disabilities and within five years receive the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential.

Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential Programs. The Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential has two areas of specialization: Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Disabilities. These areas of professional emphasis distinguish the student population with which the candidate seeks to pursue a special education career.

Education — Counseling and Special Education

1. Mild/Moderate Disabilities. This credential authorizes the provision of services to individuals with mild to moderate disabilities, in grades K through 12, including adults, who may be inefficient learners experiencing difficulties imposing structure on learning tasks. They may display delays in intellectual development, specific learning disabilities, and/or serious emotional disturbances. Frequently their behavior is characterized by underachievement, failure expectancy, and lack of social competence. They may be impulsive, distractible, and inattentive. This credential is available through the Basic Program, the Internship Program, and the Dual Certification Program (description follows).

2. Moderate/Severe Disabilities. This credential authorizes the provision of services to individuals with moderate to severe disabilities in grades K through 12, including adults, with disabilities that require specialized support to address unique learning needs resulting from a range of intellectual, behavioral, emotional, communication, sensory, and/or motor impairments. This credential is available through the Basic Program, the Internship Program, and the Dual Certification Program (description follows).

Program Delivery Systems. Students may pursue their credential goals through the Basic Program, the Internship Program, or the Dual Certification Program. A program is also available for those seeking authorization to teach the deaf and hard-of-hearing:

1. Basic Program. The basic program is designed for students seeking the credential as a full- or part-time student. They may be working as a credentialed general education teacher or be teaching with an emergency special education credential.

2. Internship Program. The Internship Program is available to students after they complete a minimum of 15 units of specified prerequisites, acquire employment in an appropriate educational setting, and attain admission to the Internship Program. Interns may serve as special education teachers at a salary rate slightly reduced from that of fully credentialed teachers while completing the required coursework and other internship activities specifically designed to support their special professional needs.

3. Dual Certification Program. This program, known as the TIES Program (Teachers in Inclusive Educational Settings), leads to the Multiple Subjects Credential and the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate or Moderate/Severe Disabilities. It is designed to prepare preservice multiple subjects and special education teachers to work cooperatively in serving the needs of an increasingly diverse student population. Field work participation is extensive. Special advising is required.

4. Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing. This credential authorizes the provision of services to individuals from birth to age 22 who have hearing impairments that impair the processing of information through hearing and that adversely affect education performance. Processing linguistic information includes speech and language reception and speech and language discrimination. Contact the Department of Communicative Disorders and Deaf Studies for advising.

Applicants who already possess a Multiple Subjects or Single Subject Credential will find the application process to be somewhat streamlined. Holders of one of these Basic Teaching Credentials may be exempted from items 2, 7, 9, and 10 of the Admission Requirements below. Please see an adviser for further clarification.

Note: In prior years, the attainment of a Special Education Credential roughly paralleled the requirements for obtaining the Master of Arts (M.A.) Degree in Special Education. This is no longer the case for those seeking the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential in Mild/Moderate and/or Moderate/Severe Disabilities through the Basic Program, the Internship Program, or the Dual Certification Program. Level I programs do not lead to the Master's Degree.

Admission Requirements. Candidates applying for the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential Programs in Mild/Moderate and/or Moderate/Severe Disabilities, the Internship Program, or the Dual Certification program are expected to meet the following admission requirements:

1. Attendance at an orientation session.
2. Verification of pre-program field experience in a classroom setting. This requirement is met by providing evidence that the candidate has completed EHD 50 (Introduction to Teaching) or another appropriate field experience.
3. Completion of Application for Admission to the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential Program in Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe Disabilities, or the Internship Program.
4. Verification of university admission.
5. Provision of a complete set of transcripts of all previous colleges and universities attended.
6. Completion of an admission interview to assess your appropriateness for the program and the field.
7. Verification of Medical Clearance.
8. Provision of three letters of recommendation.
9. Completion of Application for Character and Identification Clearance.
10. Prior to admission to Special Education Practicum, students must demonstrate subject matter competence by completing either a or b:
  - a. Complete an approved Multiple Subject Equivalency Program or pass the Praxis Series Multiple Subject Assessment for Teachers (MSAT) test for Content Knowledge and Area Exercises 1 and 2, and receive clearance from the program faculty that subject matter competency has been met by completing the Multiple Subjects Subject Matter Clearance form signed by the liberal studies adviser in ED 151.
  - b. Complete an approved subject matter preparation program or pass the appropriate subject matter examinations (information on these tests is available in the Kremen School of Education and Human Development Teacher Preparation and Services Center in ED 100) and receive authorization from the academic area adviser that subject matter competence has been met.
11. Prior to being recommended for the credential, students must provide verification of passing the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST).

- Prior to being recommended for the credential, students must verify possession of a bachelor's degree or higher from a regionally accredited institution of higher education.

Program Requirements. Candidates for the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential Programs in Mild/Moderate and/or Moderate/Severe Disabilities, the Internship Program, or the Dual Certification (TIES) Program who have been admitted to the program and who want to be recommended for authorization must meet the following requirements:

Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential Program

As candidates near completion of the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential program, they must plan for admission to the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential Program. Upon admission, candidates must complete all coursework and obtain the Professional Level II credential no later than five years after obtaining the Preliminary Level I credential. The Level II credential program cannot be completed in fewer than two years of documented employment in a special education position that requires the Level I credential authorization. The Professional Level II credential is required as a condition for continued employment in special education in the state of California.

Candidates may complete their application for admission to the Level II credential program toward the conclusion of their Level I credential program; admission to the Level II credential program is contingent upon the following:

- Successful completion of the requirements for the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential and actual receipt of the Level I credential.
- Verification of employment in a special education position that is likely to have sufficient duration for the Level II credential program to be completed. Day-to-day substitute positions do not satisfy this requirement.

- A letter of recommendation from the supervising administrator of the employing district recommending the candidate to the Professional Level II credential program.
- An interview with the program faculty who will review progress in the Level I credential program and thus assess suitability for the program and the profession.

Since candidates for the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential have successfully completed the CBEST, have demonstrated subject matter competency, and have maintained an adequate grade point average required for successful completion of the Preliminary Level I credential program, these issues are reviewed only to determine compliance with program admission standards.

The Professional Level II credential program offers specialization in mild/moderate and moderate/severe disabilities as described under the Preliminary Level I credential program. Candidates will have selected one of these professional paths for completion of the Preliminary Level I credential program, and it is expected that the same level of severity of disability will be selected for study in the Level II credential program. The selected level of disability will be consistent with the work setting in which the candidate is employed and working under the Level I credential authorization.

The Professional Level II credential program features close cooperation between the university and the employing school district. The candidate, the candidate's adviser from the university, and an assigned and appropriately credentialed Level II teacher's support provider from the employing district will work cooperatively to develop a professional credential induction plan. The induction plan will identify the unique needs of the candidate in relation to the candidate's professional setting and will establish goals and determine specific activities (including non-university activities) that will assist candidates in their development as a professional special educator.

Ongoing progress on completion of the activities specified in the induction plan will be documented in the candidate's portfolio (initially developed as a component of the Preliminary Level I credential program). The induction plan can include up to 25% of the total program in approved non-university activities if they are deemed appropriate to the professional development of the candidate.

Candidates may wish to pursue the Master of Arts in Special Education while completing the requirements for the Professional Level II credential program. There is considerable coursework consistency between the requirements of these two programs; the candidate must meet the admission requirements of both programs should this be the educational objective. Please note the requirements under the Master of Arts in Special Education for specific coursework and program requirements.

Program Requirements. Candidates for the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential Program in Mild/Moderate and/or Moderate/Severe Disabilities who have been admitted to the program and want to be recommended for authorization must meet the following coursework requirements:

Level II Program

Prerequisite ..... Level I Credential
Units

Special Education Induction/
Evaluation and Program core..... 12

SPED 209A, 209B, 219, 233

Area of specialization ..... 6

- Mild/Moderate Disabilities
SPED 235, 237 or
- Moderate/Severe Disabilities
SPED 236, 240

Specific emphasis ..... 6

Orequisite. Activities may consist of university coursework or non-university activities that are approved as a component of the professional induction plan. One-hundred fifty clock hours of approved workshops and/or seminars may be deemed equivalent to the 6-unit requirement. Students may combine university and non-university activities.

Total ..... 24

Or equivalent.

GPA Requirement for Admission to All Programs. The California Code of Regulations, Section 41100, mandates that for admission to a teaching credential program, the applicant shall have earned at the college level a grade point average that falls within the upper 50 percent of undergraduate students in the candidate's discipline. Please see the admissions technician in the Education Student Services Center, ED 152, for information on this requirement.

Appeal to Denial of Admission. Applicants who have received notification of denial of admission because the minimum standards specified in the admission requirements have not been met have an opportunity to make a formal appeal for Special Consideration to the Kremen School of Education and Human Development Admissions and Standards Committee. Information regarding this process is obtained from the admissions technician in the Education Student Services Center, ED 152.

Master of Arts in Special Education

The Master of Arts in Special Education offers advanced preparation in mild/moderate disabilities and moderate/severe disabilities and is closely related to course requirements for the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential program. It is expected that students seeking admission to the Master of Arts in Special Education will possess a substantial entry-level background in special education, such as having made significant progress toward completion of the Preliminary Level I Education Specialist Credential program in mild/moderate or moderate/severe disabilities.

Applicants seeking the Master of Arts in Special Education who also wish to teach in special education settings in the public schools of California should be concurrently enrolled in the Education Specialist Credential program. The master's degree alone will not provide authorization for classroom instruction in the state of California. Only students seeking teaching positions in states other than California, students seeking expertise for application to employment settings which specifically exclude public education, or students desiring to teach outside of the United States may pursue the Master of Arts without concurrent enrollment in the Education Specialist Credential program. Students with these unique aspirations are responsible for understanding credentialing/licensing requirements that may pertain to their desired work setting.

Students are not required to obtain this master's degree to be employed as a fully credentialed special education teacher in California. It is the credentials (both Level I and II) which provide the required state authorization. Most individuals at the Professional Level II will desire the master's degree as a reflection of their professional preparation beyond the entry level, and for purposes of possible salary augmentation. Students who already possess a master's degree in another field are not required to complete this degree program while pursuing the education specialist credentials.

It is essential that time considerations for admission to and completion of the Master of Arts and credential programs be observed. Applicants who wish to be fully credentialed as special education teachers must complete the Professional Level II Education Specialist Credential program in mild/moderate or moderate/severe disabilities within five years of completing the Level I program. Six units of Special Education coursework may be brought forward from the Level I credential program to the Master of Arts program. The Master of Arts must be completed no later than five years subsequent to taking the first approved course for the degree.

Admission Requirements for Classified Standing. In addition to the admission requirements stated in the General Admission Requirements Education — Graduate Program, page 274, students must possess a GPA of 2.75 overall or on the last 60 undergraduate semester units (or 90 quarter units) and a GPA of 3.0 on all postbaccalaureate coursework attempted. The Special Education Program also requires completion of ERF 153 - Educational Statistics (or equivalent) as a prerequisite for admission. Students may complete ERF 153 no later than the first semester of 200-level coursework and prior to taking ERF 220 or SPED 233. Additional admission requirements include an interview with the program coordinator and faculty review.

Graduate Writing Requirement. Students must demonstrate writing competence before they apply for advancement to candidacy.
