SUMMER INSTITUTE ON MIGRATION AND HEALTH PUEBLA, MEXICO JULY 9-13, 2007

The California–Mexico Health Initiative, a program of the University of California Office of the President, and the Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla, School of Medicine, announce the second annual Summer Institute on Migration and Health.

WHERE:

School of Medicine, Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla, México

WHEN:

July 9–13, 2007

OBJECTIVE:

The five–day course will provide participants with multidisciplinary instruction using theoretical, methodological and practical tools. By the end of this course, participants will have a better understanding of the complexities of health in the context of cross–border and international migration, specifically between Mexico and the United States. The ultimate goal is to identify appropriate and effective strategies for health professionals to better address health issues affected by transient migrant and immigrant populations.

PARTICIPANTS:

The program will be offered to health professionals, faculty and students from the U.S. and Mexico who are interested in migration and its health implications.

More information about the Summer Institute on Migration and Health will be available soon.
