

Central California
REGIONAL OBESITY
PREVENTION PROGRAM

Healthy Environments • Healthy Choices • Healthy People

INGREDIENTS for CHANGE CAMPAIGN

SAVE-THE-DATE

Free Community Screening of FOOD, INC.

November 13, 2009

5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Church of Fresno

2672 E. Alluvial Ave., Clovis, CA 93611

(Between Chestnut and Willow)

Food, Inc., a documentary film from Participant Media and River Road Entertainment, unveils how our nation's food systems operate. The film takes a closer look at the way our food is produced and how all of these factors are affecting our health. The screening is intended to stimulate awareness and action around local issues such as healthy food access and obesity. The Central California Regional Obesity Prevention Program (CCROPP) was chosen as one of two sites in California and one of 30 sites in the nation to participate in the Ingredients for Change Campaign.

This event is free and open to the public. Appetizers and refreshments will be provided.

For more information, call (559) 228-2140 or visit www.ccropp.org.

Support for the Ingredients for Change Campaign was provided by a grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation® in Princeton, New Jersey.

www.rwjf.org

Ingredients for Change

ACTIVE
voice®

participant
MEDIA

This event is co-sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Church of Fresno.