

Graduate Students

You're invited to attend

LCSW Webinar Workshop

Jolene Hui, MSW, LCSW

Director of Membership National Association of Social Workers - California Chapter

Where: PHS 129

When: Friday, May 10, 2019

Time: 3:30-4:30 pm

Navigating the Licensing Process - Including new legislation updates

The California LCSW licensing process can be overwhelming and, at times, confusing. Join S. Jolene Hui, MSW, LCSW in this step-by-step process so that you are better prepared for your transformation from a MSW grad to a LCSW! Whether you are in school or already in the process, this presentation can help answer some of the questions you have and will include new legislation updates that affect the way LCSWs become licensed.

S. Jolene Hui, MSW, LCSW is the Director of Membership for NASW-CA, adjunct part-time faculty at California State University, Dominguez Hills, and a therapist in private practice specializing in maternal mental health. She was a CalSWEC Mental Health Stipend Award recipient and previously a Psychiatric Social Worker for the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health in both an outpatient clinic and for Men's Jail Mental Health Services where she worked with the incarcerated LGBT population. She is a member of NASW and the National Association of Perinatal Social Workers (NAPSW) and a Doula of North America (DONA) trained birth doula. She is a proud Bruin who graduated from UCLA with her MSW in 2011 and a mama to two beautiful children.

