Objective for Interview Seminar:
Establish general interview guidelines that lead to successful employment.

The following topics will be covered:
- Present a positive image and make an outstanding first impression
- Plan for the interview in advance
- Practice is important for preparation
- Characteristics districts desire in teachers
- Common interview topics
- Sample interview questions
- The evaluation process
- Signing a contract
- Writing thank you notes
First Impressions Count

The interviewers first impression is created by your appearance...

- Dress conservatively and professionally
- Nails clean, hair neat and shoes shined!
- Avoid strong fragrances

First Impressions Count

- Warm smiles will help during the interview
- Project confidence and professionalism while remaining warm and approachable
- Your body language and tone of voice will create an impression

The image you project can have greater weight than what you actually say...

- Words express only 30-35% of what we actually communicate
- Facial expressions make up over 50% of all communication
- Non-verbal communication speaks louder than words!
A Successful Interview

A successful interview takes planning and practice...

It is an opportunity to present yourself as the best qualified candidate for the job.

- Interview situations often tend to put the person being interviewed at a disadvantage
- Candidates want to do all they can to even the playing field and give themselves every advantage
A Successful Interview
Candidates should have a two-way conversation with the interviewer where both are on equal terms...

- This is possible when a candidate is prepared and
- When a candidate remembers that s/he is interviewing as well as being interviewed
- This process will allow the candidate to determine if this is the district where s/he would like to teach

A Successful Interview
Being ready to present yourself requires that you...

- Are ready to explain how education and experience prepared you for the position
- Have researched the district
- Know your strongest skills and qualifications
- Have determined how you meet the requirements for the job
- Anticipate questions that the interviewer might ask you

A Successful Interview
Think before answering questions:

Take a few seconds if needed to formulate your response.

It is acceptable to say "That’s an interesting questions. Let me think about that for a moment before I answer..."
General Interview Guidelines

Arrive a few minutes early in order to...

• Insure that you are on time for your appointment
• Provide yourself the opportunity to adjust to your surroundings
• Allow yourself time to relax

General Interview Guidelines

Offer a firm hand shake. Be confident!
GENERAL INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

Be brief and direct in answering questions.
Maintain eye contact with the interviewer.

Be natural and relaxed. Smile.
Be animated. Nod your head and look interested.
Be self-assured and 100% honest.

Keep enthusiasm in your voice throughout the interview...
General Interview Guidelines
Voice quality is very important!

Remember that they are looking for someone who will be talking with students six hours a day.

General Interview Guidelines
Energy level will be noted as well...

Candidates should demonstrate that they are “a can-do” person who is up and ready to go.

General Interview Guidelines
When visiting district offices for interviews be courteous and friendly to the office personnel...

They can be influential in the hiring process!

Characteristics Districts Desire in Teachers

Hints For Success

- Practice makes it perfect
- Confidence comes from being 100 percent prepared
- Think everything through in advance and role play with a friend
- Role playing will help you be more in control during the interview
- Practice makes it perfect
Hints For Success
- Build rapport with the interviewer
- They hire people they like

Common Interview Mistakes
- Not listening to the question asked
- Insufficient or overly detailed answers
- Rambling, straying from the point
- Fidgeting
- Indicating that you are not sure what you want to do
- Focusing on salary and benefits

Interview Topics
Top Ten Interview Topics

- Classroom Management
- Student Teaching
- Strengths
- Weaknesses
- "What if"
- Future Plans
- Teaching Philosophy
- Teaching Style
- Motivational Theories
- Lesson Design

Classroom Management

- Have a definite classroom management plan in mind
- Be able to explain what you would do in your classroom and why
  - This is one of the most important areas to be covered!
  - Lack of management skills is the number one reason teachers leave the profession
  - Interviewers want to be sure that teachers have a plan in place

Student Teaching

- Interviewers will be interested in knowing the subject and grade that you taught
- The socio-economic level and cultural make-up of the students is important also
- Be prepared to share about the specific lessons and units that you planned
  - Mention any extracurricular activities in which you participated such as Peach Blossom Festival, Odyssey Of the Mind, Coaching, Drama
Strengths

• Interviewers want to know what you do well
• Share specific strengths that you possess that will make you more effective as a classroom teacher
• This is not a time to be humble
• For example you can say "I have been told that I am very good at..."

Weaknesses

• We all have weaknesses and interviewers are interested in seeing if candidates recognize the ones they have
• Choose carefully the ones to share, as they should not be ones that interfere with teaching effectiveness
• Once a weakness is shared, be sure to describe what is being done to correct it

“What If...”

• “What if...” questions are asked to determine how a teacher would respond in a given situation
• Example: "What if Johnny was playing soccer when the bell rang and decided to continue playing instead of coming to class? How would you handle this situation?"
• There are no right or wrong answers to these questions
• Simply use your common sense and do the best you can
Future Plans

- It is important to set goals for your future
- They do not have to be elaborate
- It could be that you plan to begin a masters program or
- It could be that you plan to take classes to improve your computer skills
- Employers simply want to see that you have a plan for your professional growth

Teaching Philosophy

What do you believe about...

- how children learn?
- your role as a teacher?
- classroom management?
- parent involvement?
- respect for diversity?

Be prepared to discuss your written philosophy statement!

Teaching Style

Which teaching style do you prefer?

- Facilitating
- Lecturing
- Modeling
  - Guiding students to discover knowledge for themselves
  - A combination of two or more
Motivational Theories
What can teachers do to motivate students to want to learn?

Develop creative ideas that can be shared

Lesson Design
• What are the important elements that go into planning an effective lesson?
• Use one of your best lesson plans as an example
• Be sure to discuss each element in your lesson plan
• Having a written plan will support what you are saying

The Least Important Topics Discussed
College Courses
Curriculum Knowledge
Employment History
Youth Activities
Salary
Higher Thinking
College Activities
Community Activities
Grade Point Average
Interview Questions

• The first question will be something like "Tell me a little bit about yourself".
• Interviewers use this question as an ice breaker. They hope it will get you talking.
• They do not need to hear your life history
• Tell them only the highlights, especially the ones related to your teaching experience

Individualized Learning

• How do you handle the different ability levels of students in your classroom?
• How do you individualize learning in your class?
Interview Questions

Classroom Management

• What rules have you established for your classroom?
• What have you found to be the most challenging aspect of discipline?
• Describe the physical appearance of your classroom?

Important Points

The Evaluation Process

• The interviewer will evaluate your overall performance and rate you accordingly
• The rating you will receive will determine where you are placed on the “To Hire” list
• Many districts provide only one opportunity to interview. The rating you receive will be permanent.
• Be sure to do an excellent job in each interview

Who is the Interviewer?

- Principal: 84 %
- Personnel Administrator: 54 %
- Superintendent: 33 %
- Assistant Principal & Committees: 26 %

First-year teachers tell us with whom they interviewed while job-seeking.

THE EVALUATION PROCESS

How long will your interviews be?

- Screening/first interviews will be 30 minutes or less
- Hiring/follow up interviews will be 45 to 60 minutes
- Some districts will ask you to present a lesson during the interview. These sessions will vary in length...
SALARY SCHEDULES

- Salary is one subject that is not discussed in an interview.
- Obtain salary schedules from the district personnel office and familiarize yourself with it.
- Salaries are based on the number of post-baccalaureate upper division units a teacher has as well as the number of years of experience.
- There is a process for moving excess undergraduate upper division units to post-baccalaureate status.
- Be sure to review the benefit package offered by each district as well.

Signing a Contract

- A district contract is a legally binding document.
- Be confident in your decision before you sign the contract.
- Some districts have new employees sign what is called an "Intent To Hire" meaning that you have secured the job but the district is unable to tell you in which grade you will teach or at which school.
- Never break a contract once it is signed.

Closing An Interview

Closing an Interview

- When an interviewer says “Do you have any questions for me?”, it is a signal that the interview is coming to a close.
- Prepare questions in advance to ask at this time.
- If you have no questions, a statement may be made regarding why you want to teach in that school district.

- Before leaving be sure to clarify for yourself what the next step will be.
- Questions such as “When may I expect to hear from you?” or “When do you expect to have a decision?” are appropriate to ask.
- If a date is indicated for a decision, do not call prior to that date but wait until after that date to make contact.
- Thank the interviewer for their time.

Reminder

Be sure to send a Thank You letter to each person that interviewed you!

Address the letter to the person with whom you interviewed...
