June 5 to 13, 2010

Tour Highlights:

- Nine nights in London staying at the charming Kensington Close Hotel.
- Breakfast Daily, Welcome Dinner and special Farewell Opera Dinner.
- Tickets to four London-area theatre performances.
- Guided field trips to Stonehenge, Roman Baths, Museum of Costumes, Globe Exhibition, V&A Museum, Royal Botanical Gardens/Kew.
- Optional Daytrip to Stratford-Upon-Avon.
- Setting the Scene, Talking Theatre (Globe Theatre) and backstage tour of Royal National Theatre.
- Panoramic London city tour and walking tour of Shakespeare's London/Theatre History.
- Four lectures/talks from theatre experts and educators (dates, themes and speakers to be announced).

Your theatre expert and escort – C. Tim Quinn:

Tim has been active in the theatre for more than 50 years. He has taught theatre at the college and university level and has staged more than 150 dramatic productions. Between 1994 and 2002 he taught drama for the London International Theatre Educational Services, Drama Summer School at Rossa College and Dublin City University in Ireland. Tim also had the responsibility as lead instructor for the Semester in England program for college students.

This trip has been designed to combine your opportunity to attend theatre performances with field trips to some of the well-known historical sites in and around London. This will be an educational experience, as lectures about the plays and talk-back sessions will be arranged by theatre experts.
