

in darkest night, in forest deep.....(poem to my Angara)
by May Charles

in darkest night, in forest deep,
alone, awake,
in death, in sleep.
i am with You, within Your heart,
so hear me now, never shall W/we part.
within my soul are You contained.
within Your soul i feel no pain.
in our heart W/we heal all scars,
within Your soul i soar through stars.
i think of You each night and day,
astride of You i pray to stay.
inside of You i find my strength;
each part of me, is Yours to take.
