

Winter 2010 Travel Study Program Mexican Culture and the Healing Arts: Cuernavaca

January 3 - 18
COUN 180T - 3 units
Cost: $2,450

Hands-on experience in Mexico where you will learn about the culture and the traditional systems of health and healing. Ideal for undergraduate and graduate students in social work, counseling, nursing, and health and human services who have an interest in the health and mental health issues of Latinos/Mexican Americans. This program is also appropriate for MFT or MSW interns who are treating Mexican American clients.

Informational meetings:
Wednesday, September 9, 6 pm, ED 187 OR
Monday, September 21, 6 pm, ED 187

Deposit of $700 due October 2, 2009
Balance of $1,750 due December 4, 2009
Scholarships may be available

Details:
Juan Garcia, Ph.D.
Counseling, Special Education and Rehabilitation
(559) 278-0287
juang@csufresno.edu

 Division of Continuing and Global Education

California State University, Fresno

Education Building, Room 130
(559) 278-0333
cgeinfo@csufresno.edu